

Reference Framework – Entrepreneurial Development

Education Through Entrepreneurial Spirit

Education Through Entrepreneurial Spirit

Significantly impacts the development of young people by contributing to entrepreneurial culture, student perseverance, personal satisfaction and career choice.

Self-affirmation

“I am an e”

Affirm one's identity.
Tools for belonging.

Acknowledgement

“You are an e”

Gain recognition.
Certificate. Winners. Prizes.

Experimentation

“I am carrying out an e project”

Put ideas into action.
Execute an idea, a project.

Awareness

“I am a witness to e”

Visit businesses. Case studies.
Conference. Promotion.

More specifically, Education Through Entrepreneurial Spirit in schools contributes to:

- Placing learning in context (what it's for)
- Building identity (discover who I am)
- Developing a feeling of competence (what I'm good at)
- Providing career guidance (what I like to do)
- Creating a sense of belonging

Six keys to success

Add the approach to the educational project

Involve community stakeholders

Use the 4 levers among students

Allocate resources

Collaborate with colleagues

Use the available tools